EDUCATION WEEK OPEN DAY

Our Education Week Open Day was a HUGE success! Thank you to everyone who joined us for 'A Trip back in time' last Thursday!

The students & teachers enjoyed opening up their classrooms to show off all the hard work they have been working on lately.

the SPORTS REPORT

The Boys and Girls Touch Football PSSA games will be played on Wednesday 14 August at Woodberry Public School Oval. The girls will be playing their third round against East Maitland PS at 12.00pm. The boys will be playing their second round against Tarro PS at 12.50pm. We wish both teams good luck!

ZONE ATHLETICS CARNIVAL

We had our Zone Athletics Carnival on Friday 2 August and 31 students headed down to Fred Harvey Oval to compete in their events. Students were excited and showed great sportsmanship. We had a few students placing in the heats and making it to the finals. It was a successful day and we would like to say thank you to everyone who helped Miss Sikahale and Mrs J on the day.

DEBATING

A big congratulations to our debating team Banjo, Rohan, Joshua and Deegan for another exceptional debate against Ashtonfield PS today. The debate topic was "That people under 18 should have to play a team sport on the weekend." The team lost the coin toss and were awarded the negative side. Although the team came up with some very strong arguments, Ashtonfield PS won in a very close debate. We would like to congratulate the team for winning 3 out of their 4 debates at this year's Premier's Debating Challenge. I wish the boys loads of success in their future debating career. Well done... we are all extremely proud of you all!!!

CHECK MATE

Who said kids were bored with board games?
Not the kids at Woodberry PS!

Our inaugural school chess competition attracted 36 eager players. Competitors were placed in groups of 4. Each player had to verse the other three competitors in their pool. The winner of the Pool progresses to the finals round. The competition was fierce in the Pool rounds with games running through eating and lunch time in the garden.

The finals round will now be played out over Term 3.

Our nine finalists are:

Banjo Bennett	Ryan Jordaan
Jaiden Cooper	Rohan McLaren
Tyler Curran	Danial Omand
Mathew Fleming	Luke Ryan
Josh Hardy

The top three players will go into the Grand Final round. Eight of the nine will also represent Woodberry PS at the Maitland Schools Chess Competition at Bolwarra on Monday 9 September.

Our school canteen is open on WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY & FRIDAYS!
